SEN. FRANCIS X. KELLY AND FAMILY HONORED BY CHIMES, INC.
HALL OF FAME BENEFIT FEATURES CONCERT BY LIZA MINNELLI AT MEYERHOFF

BALTIMORE (October 18, 2007) – Chimes Inc. (“Chimes Maryland”) is honoring Sen. Francis X. Kelly, Jr. and the Kelly Family for their community service, with a benefit concert by Liza Minnelli Saturday, October 27, 2007 7:30 p.m at the Meyerhoff Symphony Hall. Each year Chimes Hall of Fame honors a selfless and active member of the community for exceptional work and dedication to helping others. All proceeds will benefit the new Chimes school in Baltimore City.

Chimes Maryland is recognizing Sen. Kelly and his wife Janet with gratitude for their decades of work to improve the lives of citizens in Baltimore and Maryland. Married 46 years, they have inspired the next generation, their sons and daughters-in law: Frank, III and his wife Gayle; John and his wife Tee; David and his wife Melissa; and Bryan and his wife Heidi. The family’s work embraces community, faith-based and recreational organizations including the University of Maryland Medical System, Shock Trauma, Calvert School, Maryland Zoo in Baltimore, Baltimore County Chamber of Commerce, the Foundation Fighting Blindness, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Mt. Washington Pediatric Hospital, Dyslexia Tutoring Program, the Penn-Mar Corporation and Boys Hope Girls Hope and many others.
